

Code of Acceptable Behaviours

Moe Dance Eisteddfod is committed to ensuring the health and safety of the child performer at all times, and with treating competitors, teachers and families involved in this event with respect.

Our Eisteddfod:

“ Supports Kids, is Safe for Kids, is Fun for Kids”

Teachers

- remember that young dancers participate for pleasure- winning is only part of the fun
- Relate to officials in a courteous and polite way
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants
- Operate within the rules and spirit of the event - encourage your dancers to understand playing by the rules is their responsibility

Dancers

- Show respect to and acknowledge your competitors and officials
- Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit - not just to please parents and teachers
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all competitors
- Speak to an adult you trust if you have an issue, feel unsafe or are concerned about someone else

Parents/Audience members

- Remember your child participates for their enjoyment- not yours
- Encourage your child to play by the rules
- Respect the officials decisions
- Show appreciation for teachers, officials and administrators- Remember they are usually VOLUNTEERS
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person
- Ensure you are aware and follow the correct processes if you have an issue or complaint- do not perpetuate with gossip or general criticism.

Officials/Administrators

- Ensure you are aware of obligations to provide a child safe environment
- Set an example- your behaviour and comments should be positive and supportive
- Compliment and encourage all participants - you are a role model
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants, volunteers, teachers, families/carers
